

LAKE PARRAMATTA

- 1 - Coloured concrete pavement to improve accessibility to waters edge
- 2 - Coarse river sand 'beach' for improved level water access
- 3 - 2.0 x 2.0m raised mod-wood lifeguard platform
- 4 - Concrete water access steps with central stainless steel handrail and tactile surface indicators
- 5 - Proposed sandstone rock outcrops / boulders
- 6 - Sandstone coloured concrete steps to match existing
- 7 - Planted native bush regeneration works
- 8 - Sandstone block seating / retaining wall
- 9 - Underwater retaining wall to 1.8m depth with depth markers to retain coarse river sand 'beach' material
- 10 - Backrest and armrests placed on sandstone block retaining wall
- 11 - Coloured concrete access pathway with steps and tactile surface indicators along pedestrian desire line improving accessibility to existing shelters and swimming area
- 12 - Tactile surface indicators placed at the top and bottom of existing deck steps for improved accessibility